Filming & photography guide
Stunning Grade II listed building in the heart of Bloomsbury

The grand Courtyard and driveway of BMA House have provided the backdrop to the likes of: Speechless (starring Minnie Driver and comedy legend John Cleese) where it became Buckingham Palace, the Nike advert (starring Harry Kane) and award-winning BBC one drama Spooks as far back as 2011 showing the building in action in its new guise as a top London hotel.

Once home to novelist Charles Dickens, BMA House offers two outdoor spaces; the large, opulent Courtyard overlooked by two ‘royal’ balconies, and the botanical Garden, with feature pond, a beautiful, tranquil setting for any season, period or location shoot. The venue’s many indoor spaces also offer a wealth of opportunities for creative video and photo shoots, benefiting from plenty of superb natural daylight. BMA House is also just a stones throw from Woburn Walk, an idyllic, Victorian style street providing a backdrop for films such as Christopher Robin, The Aeronauts and Cruella.

Located in the heart of Bloomsbury but tucked away in a private setting, many of its indoor spaces provide a contemporary contrast to the feel of its heritage, period outside areas.
