Conference filming

Capture your conference at BMA House

We offer three bespoke packages to help you capture your conference in the best way that works for you. These range from still head and shoulders footage, to filming of presentations and wide-angle shots to film the whole stage.

Please contact your event planner to discuss the best package for you based on your requirements. We also have an in-house AV team available to assist with any specific questions or make recommendations that will benefit your event and requirements.

Camera and operator package

Our entry level package provides a head and shoulders shot of the talks throughout the event. The package includes:

- One camera and camera operator
- Static head and shoulders footage of all talks throughout the conference
- Includes full editing after the event has taken place. Final footage can be edited as individual talks or combined for the whole day

£1,400 + VAT

This facility needs to be pre-booked and is subject to availability

Picture in Picture (PIP) package

A similar offering to our first package, but includes filming of the PowerPoint slides into the final footage:

- One camera and camera operator
- Static head and shoulders footage of all talks throughout the conference
- Includes full editing after the event has taken place. Final footage can be edited as individual talks or combined for the whole day

£1,950 + VAT

This facility needs to be pre-booked and is subject to availability

Advanced package

Our advanced package captures the slides and talks, as well as a wide range of angles:

- Three cameras and one camera operator
- Seamless movement between shots to capture all talks and slides, as well as close up filming, head and shoulders, wide angles and audience shots
- Includes full editing after the event has taken place

£2,950 + VAT

This facility needs to be pre-booked and is subject to availability
